Board Statement regarding Ottawa Police Service Chief Administrative Officer

(Ottawa)— Effective immediately, Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) Jeff Letourneau is no longer employed in the Ottawa Police Service, as a result of a unanimous decision of the Ottawa Police Services Board.

Due to the confidential nature of personnel matters, the Board will not be providing any further comment.

Chief Peter Sloly has implemented interim measures while the Board is seeking to initiate an expedited process to find a suitable permanent replacement for the role of CAO.

We thank Chief Sloly for his ongoing leadership within the Ottawa Police Service that continues to ensure professionalism, integrity and public confidence are upheld.

The Board is committed to transparency and accountability and will continue to make decisions that earn the highest level of trust in our Police Service and the Board.

The Ottawa Police Services Board is the civilian body responsible for governing the Ottawa Police Service. It is responsible for the provision of adequate and effective police services to the City of Ottawa's residents.
